Join Orchestra Collective of Orange County (OCofOC) for something a little different this summer – a pop-up chamber music/food-and-drink extravaganza. It will be a multi-course, multi-movement evening of musical and culinary delight!

The music: selections from two of the most glorious chamber works in the Romantic canon – the Brahms Clarinet Quintet (Op. 115) and Schubert Cello Quintet (D. 956) – played by OCofOC principal string and wind musicians, as well as lighter selections by the OCofOC cello quartet.

The refreshment: first, snacks and drinks (alcoholic and non-) mixed and served by guest bartender, OCofOC artistic director David Rentz; later, a light dinner, followed by delicious desserts provided by professional baker and OCofOC bassoonist Lesley Frey.

The venue: You and the Mat, a modern, airy multi-purpose studio space – roomy enough to mingle, but intimate enough to truly experience the intense passion and ethereal sublimity of the Brahms and Schubert.
